Number 23

God bless each and every one of you throughout this summer as the Lord directs you daily. We are studying on Wednesday nights this summer "one another" passages from the Bible in the auditorium together. This past Wednesday we spoke about "Encourage one another". We would like to encourage one another to use the opportunity we have this summer to come learn together as we talk about these passages that talk about relationships we desire to have with one another. May we be challenged to grow in maturity in all of these one another messages.

God bless and keep fired up! Mark White

Listed below here is what we will be looking at each week.
