"Blessed are the Peacemakers..."

... for they will be called the children of God." Wow. What a powerful statement, especially in these times of turmoil and unrest. As we look at this particular "beatitude", it is important to note that Jesus said that it is the peace "makers" that will be blessed. Not the peace "lovers". Not the peace "seekers". Not the peace "desirers". No, it is the peace "makers". Those who are actively, consciously, deliberately making peace in the world.

And note the blessing applied to this beatitude ... "for they shall be called the children (sons) of God." When we are peacemakers, we partake in His divine nature as the Great Peacemaker. It is God who, from the very first sin, began the plan to make peace between Himself and mankind through His Son, Jesus Christ. "Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior. But now He has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in His sight, without blemish and free from accusation." (Colossians 1:21-22). "For if, when we were God's enemies, we were reconciled to Him through the death of His Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through His life!" (Romans 5:10). It is through finding peace with God that also find the strength and compassion to become peacemakers; that we become His children.

We make peace with others and between others: "Make every effort to live in peace with all men" (Hebrews 12:14), "If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone" (Romans 12:18). In making peace we must be willing to swallow our pride, get rid of our prejudices, be willing to forgive and allow God's peace to control our lives: "(In Christ) There is no Greek or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all and is in us all" (Colossians 3:11), "Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others" (Philippians 2:3-4).

Let us all become peacemakers and be blessed by being called the children of God.

- Tim
