“Called Saints”

Christians are called, “saints” in scripture. The apostle Paul wrote to the church, the sanctified “called to be saints” in Corinth (1 Corinthians 1:2). The terms holy, sanctified, hallowed and saint come from the same root word and cover the same basic concept.

The Bible says that God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it (Genesis 2:3). Moses referred to this day as the, “holy Sabbath” (Exodus 16:23). God blessed the Sabbath day and “hallowed it”. (Exodus 20:11). The Sabbath day was a set apart, sanctified, holy, hallowed day.

The apostle Paul referred to the early Christians’ manner of greeting each other and called it holy (Romans 16:16). The point here is that Christians set apart to belong to God formed such an important togetherness and fellowship that their very manner of greeting was set apart and holy.

Saints are people who have answered the call to belong to God. Their very calling is said to be holy (2 Timothy 1:9). The call goes out to all people through the Gospel (2 Thessalonians 2:14). Those who respond, regardless of their background or how sin-stained they may be are said to be washed, sanctified and justified (1 Corinthians 6:9-11).

We are not merely called to be good. We are called to belong to the Lord and because we belong to him we seek to be like him. (1 Peter 1:15-16). We are not called just to go to church. We are called to belong to the Lord, and because we belong to him we meet to worship the one who has called us and to whom we belong (John 4:24). We are not called just to sing hymns and give money. We are called to belong to the Lord, and because we belong to him we will sing praises to him (Psalm 95:1). And we will give, because in giving we become like him who gave so much for us (John 3:16).

Saints are not super Christians who never fail. Saints are people who have responded to the invitation to belong to God, and they are set apart to him. Their purpose is to glorify him and to become more like him as they grow up into him (Ephesians 4:15).

I write to the saints in Daingerfield and elsewhere to encourage us in understanding the beautiful relationship into which we have been called with the Lord. This belongingness which we have with the Lord becomes motivation for all that we do in worship and service to him.

TNFTM

God is good! The rain came down and the brothers showed up. We were so happy to see those able to make it for TNFTM. In fact, 42 were present. Several helped with meal preparation and cleanup, 7 visits were made or attempted, 10 phone calls made, and 34 cards written. The fellowship with one another was great and God be glorified. We are looking forward to next Tuesday and seeing what the Lord has prepared. Come and enjoy the fellowship and enjoy serving the Lord together.

Keep fired up!

Mark

FAMILY LIFE GROUPS

It's great to see our brothers and sisters are getting to know each other through the Family Life Groups. For this we praise God! Some have said they have learned something new about a brother or sister that they have known for years. Others have said they love getting to know others from church that they do not usually have the opportunity to sit beside and talk to. I loved how one sister put it saying that the groups are about studying God's Word and learning how to apply it in our daily lives. We pray that the Lord continues to bless this time as you get to know one another, share with one another, pray for one another, study with one another and above all that your relationship with the Lord is strengthened. We praise God to see that 162 participated in the groups this past Sunday. If you have not been able to attend one of the groups, then prayerfully consider the opportunity this next month. Daylight savings time is also a bonus. The next meeting will be on the 18th of March.

Keep fired up for the Lord,

-Mark
